The Rowland Ward Fair-Chase Hunting & Conservation Award is a solid silver medal given once a year by Dallas Safari Club and the Rowland Ward Foundation for an outstanding animal hunted under free-range, fair-chase conditions.

To qualify, the animals must have been hunted in accordance with Rowland Ward's Guiding Principles on Hunting and Conservation. The winner must be a strong supporter of conservation and sustainable hunting and exhibit exemplary ethics in the field.

Awards may be given in each of the four regions—(1) Africa, (2) the Americas, (3) Asia and the South Pacific, and (4) Europe—but only if a truly outstanding animal from the region is entered.

Rowland Ward is a registered non-profit 501(c)(3) organization.
